If the entry in column 1 is less than the entry in column 2, enter "0" in column 3.
 If the "largest number previously paid for" is less than the "largest number remaining after amendment," the entry in column 2 should be the difference between the two numbers.
 The "largest number previously paid for" is based on the number of claims in the largest independent claim group in the previous amendment. If the number of claims in the largest independent claim group in the previous amendment is less than the number of claims in the largest independent claim group in the current amendment, the entry in column 2 should be the difference between the two numbers.
